

DYER CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, INC.

THE DEEPER YOU DIG...

THE MORE YOU DISCOVER

...OUR LONGEVITY

Mike Vander Heyden began Dyer Construction in 1948 with one bulldozer, digging basements for homes that were part of Northwest Indiana's postwar housing boom. The family's dining room table soon became an office when Mike's wife, Henrietta, set up bookkeeping there for the fledgling company.

Three generations later, we're still a family-owned and managed business. We've remained in Dyer but have long since outgrown the dining room table. We own dozens of pieces of earthmoving equipment and employ more than 60 full-time professionals, support staff and skilled tradesmen.

DYER CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, INC.

As our business has grown, so has the size and complexity of our contracts. We're still an excavation contractor, focusing on site preparation, infrastructure installation, flood retention, flat concrete, tilt-up walls and all types of cast in place concrete.

Our projects range from approximately $100 thousand to $30 million in cost. Our expertise has allowed us to work recently on projects that include the reconstruction of U.S. Route 6 in Portage and a Confined Disposal Facility in East Chicago. We're a pre-qualified contractor for both Indiana Department of Transportation and Illinois Department of Transportation.

GPS machine guidance technology assists even our most experienced operators, guaranteeing accuracy and efficiency in site preparation. Our construction layout and staking ensures a smooth transition to the next phase of your project. Trust our team to get your job done correctly and on budget.

...OUR CAPABILITIES

An Equal Opportunity Employer

The year 2008 marks Dyer Construction's 60th anniversary. We're proud to say that, during all those years, we've completed every job we've ever taken on. This fact speaks loudly to our integrity and to our commitment to our clients. That kind of record doesn't happen in a vacuum; it happens through continued communication with both our clients and our employees.

We believe our employees are our most valuable asset and strive to maintain safe working conditions. We limit our geographical range to Northwest Indiana and Northeast Illinois so that our employees may spend evenings and weekends with their families.

We're an equal opportunity employer; our EEO policy is available upon request.

We're ready to discuss your next project.
